

Bon Ton CORSETS

Corset Demonstration Ends Tomorrow

Only two days more remain in which to meet Miss Milne, expert corsetiere direct from "Salon du BON TON," New York. This is the opportunity of the season for our patrons to receive special instructions regarding correct corseting. Visit our Corset Department either today or tomorrow; it will be well worth while. Let us demonstrate the BON TON modes that give you figure the "Fashionable Lines" so much talked of.

These corsets are made with the patented "O-I-C" Clasp which does not pinch, break, twist, squeak and always stays flat.

THE SPECIALTY SHOP

140 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

STONINGTON

The status of the local postoffice has been raised from third to second class according to word received by Postmaster J. P. Leahy from Washington. The change will go into effect on July 1. Announcement is also made that Charles B. Garity has been named as clerk.

Commencement exercises of Stonington High school were held Thursday evening in the borough hall. The graduates followed: College course, Gladys Morgan, Violet May Adams, Gertrude Sarah Greer, David Gallup Scott, Frances Eleanor Truana, Lucy Stanton Whitford, Reine Marie Courase, Samuel Dick Brown, Walter Sands Fish.

Commercial course: Victor Stewart Johnson, William Frederick Luckner, Phoebe Stoddard Denison, Mary Eileen Farnan, Katherine Marie Gilmartin, Joseph Thomas Gilmartin, Robert Harrison Gremley, Anna Brew McDowell, Bertha Mary Winkler.

General course: Doris Almyra Peckham, Eleanor Jane Robinson, Benedine Lorraine Davis, Aileen Elizabeth Dennison, Earle Henry Leonard, Mary Rosette Palmer, Ida Rosen, Anna Richardson Wilcox and

GLASGO

Glasgo school closed Saturday afternoon for the summer vacation with a picnic for the children. Elizabeth Shaw was the only graduate this year, receiving her diploma at the close of school.

The strawberry supper served by the Ladies' Aid society at the home of John Pether was largely attended. The music by the Glasgo orchestra was enjoyed by all.

Peter Selway, Jr., is at the home of his parents on a 30 days furlough. Mr. Selway has been away from home six years in the navy and is now just home from overseas service.

Fred Jarvis returned recently from overseas. Mr. Jarvis was exceedingly fortunate in not receiving a scratch during the 18 months of army service. Invitations are out announcing the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Tanner of Voluntown.

The heavy shower of last Friday was a great help to garden produce and all crops, as they were badly in need of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tift were in Baltic Wednesday attending the graduation exercises at the school where their daughter is a student.

CHESTERFIELD

Miss Florence Powers has returned home after spending a short time in Waterford.

The summer boarders from New York are arriving.

WESTERLY

Westerly paid homage to her heroes of the world war Thursday, the entire day being enthusiastically devoted to the entertainment of ex-service men. The big attraction of the day was the soldiers' and sailors' parade held late Thursday afternoon.

Long before the hour of the parade the principal streets of the town were thronged with a holiday crowd. There were visitors from Norwich, New London, Stonington, Mystic, North Stonington and many of the surrounding villages.

The parade which started at 2.30 o'clock from the Westerly Armory on Dixon street, formed as follows:

Marshal, Lieut. Col. Arthur N. Nash
Chief of Staff, Donald C. Cottrell
Aides
Naval Training Station Band, Newport
Escort of State Guard
Sixteenth Co., East Greenwich
Second Company, Wakefield
Fourth Company, Westerly
Company F, C. S. G., Pawcatuck
Westerly Sanitary Corps
Submarine Base Naval Band
Provisional Battalion
Service Men, Westerly and Pawcatuck
Admiral Herbert O. Dunn
First Provisional Company
Second Provisional Company
Third Provisional Company

The line of march took in the principal streets of the town and concluded at Wilcox park, where following a review Admiral Dunn presented the Service Medals given by the town of Westerly to the men of the community who served their country in the world war. At the completion of the parade there was a dinner at the Westerly Armory for all those who participated in the demonstration. In the evening there was a dance at Wilcox park. The committee in charge comprised Herbert P. Clark, chairman, Donald C. Cottrell, H. Russell Burdick, Fred N. Robinson, Walter S. Price and Raymond H. Hiscow.

The farmers and gardeners of Rhode Island have again been called to strive for an increased appropriation with which to fight the corn borer, a destructive pest near Boston in 1917, which is now steadily spreading the area of its destructive range and threatens soon to enter Rhode Island.

The passenger earnings of the Rhode Island Company for the month of May was $678,863.19, an increase of $39,257.43 over the same month a year ago, according to the monthly financial statement filed with the public utilities commission.

At Wilcox park this (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock there will be a concert by the Westerly band and athletic events. The programme of athletic events follows:

Boys and Girls' events: Fifty yard dash (boys under 16 years); 50 yard dash (girls under 16 years); 100 yard dash (boys under 16 years); 100 yard dash (girls under 16 years); sack race (boys under 16 years); sack race (girls under 16 years); sack race (boys under 16 years); sack race (girls under 16 years).

Open event: Fat man's race (50 yards), equipment race (100 yards), throwing baseball (three trials), three-legged race, relay race, 12 on a side (soldiers and sailors), shoe race, tug-of-war (soldiers and sailors), sack race.

Officials will be: Announcer, Rev. E. A. MacDonnell; clerk, Walter S. Price; starter, Capt. Donald Cottrell; judges, Herbert P. Clark, Lieut. H. Russell Burdick, Fred N. Robinson and Ensign Raymond H. Hiscow.

The class of 1922, Westerly High school, held a reunion banquet at the Rhode Island house Wednesday evening.

At Pleasant View the class of 1900, Westerly High School held a reunion Wednesday evening. Miss Annie McNelly was elected president and Mrs. A. L. Thompson was elected secretary and treasurer and secretary for the ensuing year. Captain Isaac F. Gavitt told of his experiences as commander of an army transport.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' parade is scheduled to take place this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. Captain Abraham P. Danson will be marshal and the aides will be Col. Charles H. Ledward, Major Everett E. Whipple, Lieut. Henry M. Clarke and Lieut. William Mitchell. Cross street will be seen floats and displays by the local merchants. There will be three bands in line, the Williamite band, Ship and Engine band of New London and Konow band of Westerly.

In the evening from 8.30 until 11.30 o'clock there will be dancing on Broad street in front of the town hall.

Chief of Police Thomas Brown and his assistants did a good deal of work in keeping the streets clear for the parade held Thursday afternoon. Local Boy Scouts rendered valuable assistance to the chief in directing automobile drivers to the correct street.

The following streets will be closed during the parade: From 4 until 5 p. m. there will be no traffic on High street from the junction of High and Canal to the junction of High and Grove avenue; on Grove avenue and on Granite street from Grove to Broad street.

The historical pageant will be given by the people of Westerly in Wilcox park this (Friday) afternoon at 5 o'clock in commemoration of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of the town. Much time and effort has been spent by Miss Virginia Tanner in training those who are to take part.

Local Laconics.
John S. Newbury and family of Detroit have arrived to spend the summer at Watch Hill.

Cottage Cloverly at Watch Hill is occupied this season by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Atwood of Providence.

All the state roads on Block Island have been repaired during the past two months and are now in excellent condition. The beach road leading from the hotel section at the old harbor to the historic rock, Sandy Point, a distance of five miles, has been resurfaced and oiled.

Miss Harriet Campbell, an annual member at the Watch Hill summer colony, has arrived and has opened her cottage for the season.

Ashaway Grange is considering plans for a home-coming celebration for the boys of Ashaway who have served in the military and naval forces during the war.

The old homestead at King Tom Farm was open to visitors on Wednesday. The first owner of the farm was Thomas Ninigret, better known as King Tom, who was born in 1736 and came to the throne in 1744, being last king of the Narragansett Indians.

FRANKLIN

Children's day was observed at the Franklin church June 15th. The church was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Addison Rockwood. Four children were baptized—Evelyn Lathrop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Barbara Antoinette Rogers, Philip Silver Rogers and Elizabeth Chase Smith. Following was the program: March, The Flowerland Above; scripture reading; prayer; baptism of children; song, school, Our Father's Prayer; recitations, A Welcome, Nelson Robinson; The Coming of Summer, Jennie Rockwood; song, school, Sing Your Carols of Praise; recitations, Daisies, Elmer Armstrong; God in His World, Roger Miner; song, school, O the Joy of Living; recitations, Such a Sunny Day, Ruth Starkweather; Lord's Melody, Gladys Ladd; song, Roses, Bloomington; four young ladies; recitations, Our Friends, Anita Armstrong, Warren Rockwood, Grace Mitchell; Like the Birdies, Ruth Robinson; song, school, Song of the Roses; recitation, If You Would Be Happy, Ernest Starkweather; song, Ruth Robinson, Nelson Robinson, Ernest Starkweather and Ruth Starkweather; recitation, Sister, Julia Rodman; song, school, No Flower So Dear; address by pastor; recitations, Two Boys of Giving, William Rodman; Your Share, Stephen Armstrong; offering and announcements; song, by school, The Earth is the Lord's; benediction.

The Home Missionary society met with Mrs. Louis Smith recently, over 40 being in attendance. A large amount of work was accomplished for the Bel-Plans.

Mrs. Georgianna Ross of Norwich was a recent guest of Mrs. May Ross.

WHITE ROCK

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phillips of South Coventry are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. William Stillwell.

Mrs. Everett Codlin and son of Moosau are guests of Misses Sarah and Ruth Brown.

Mrs. Jennie Thompson of Pendleton Hill was the guest Wednesday of her mother, Mrs. Irving Babcock.

Samuel Main is spending the week in Providence.

Miss Idella Lancaster has been entertaining her niece, Mrs. Wheeler, and the latter's infant son from New Jersey. Mrs. Wheeler was Miss Helen Fuller, who often visited here.

Miss Hazel Bennett has returned home from a visit of several days with relatives in Providence.

Miss Annie Harwood of Pawtucket, R. I. is spending the week with her father.

Mrs. Wayne Whitman and children of Washington, R. I. are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight M. Cornell.

Miss Annie Connors was among the number of those who were graduated from Westerly High school Wednesday. Miss Connors was an honor pupil.

Mrs. William Stillwell was in Stonington Wednesday to attend the graduation.

GARDNER LAKE

Charles Rathbun of Providence, R. I. is visiting his brother, Clarence Rathbun, at Lakeside.

Mr. Soule of Bridgeport is spending the season with his daughter, Mrs. L. Butterfield, at Oak Tree farm.

Miss Jessie Fullerton is spending two weeks in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Y. M. C. A. Camp Massapeak has carpenters building an icehouse.

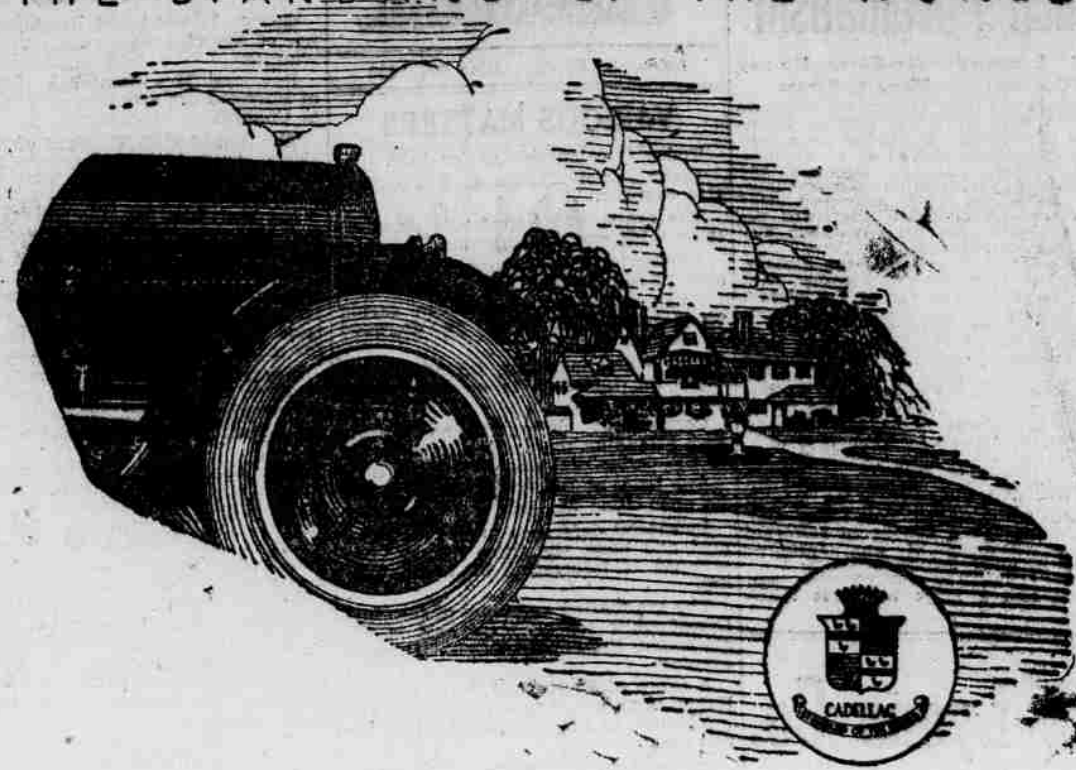

Mrs. N. Porter of Newport, R. I. spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan.

Frank Miner of North Plain has returned.

Wins Cross Of Spanish Order

Mme. Sklodowska-Curie has just been awarded the Great Cross of the civilian order of Alfonso XIII. She is the distinguished French scientist and the chief professor in the faculty of sciences of the University of Paris. She was the discoverer of polonium and co-discoverer with her husband of radium. She has twice won the Nobel prize for chemistry.

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

The magic that is in the Cadillac is a constant, a stabilized, a never-changing magic—a luxury of motion that results from definite, positive qualities of construction.

THE A. SWAN CO.
Norwich and New London

BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McGurk and family of Hartford have come to their Bolton home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Curry of Hartford have rented C. N. Loomis' cottage for the summer.

Miss Josephine La Plant of New York has been visiting Miss Sara Pinney.

Mrs. Charles N. Loomis is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Stetson, in Cromwell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hutchinson and daughter of Hartford spent the week end in town.

The Missionary club of Cromwell gave The Old Peabody Pew in the Congregational church last week Wednesday evening. It was greatly enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served in the hall.

A dance was given in the hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Atkins and children have returned to Hartford after a visit at Charles M. Lee's.

John H. Massey was a recent Westport visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright R. Baker from the west are guests of the former's sister, Miss Anita R. Baker. Miss Baker is also entertaining her niece, the Misses Townsend, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Finley and children of New York are to come to town Saturday and open their Bolton home for the summer.

Prize Contributors.
The main trouble with the reading matter in the Congressional Record nowadays is too much Lodge, Borah and Knox—Des Moines Register.

A Bad Shot
Gustave Stresemann, leader of the National Liberal party in Germany, says the Kaiser's aim was peace. He was a bad shot—Detroit Free Press.

"Cash and Carry" Sale

WATCH OUR ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW BARGAINS BROUGHT OUT DAILY

In this great Sale, fresh money-saving items are brought out daily. Each one is a genuine "Cash and Carry" bargain. Each price is reduced to the very lowest notch—each value is as represented, and the merchandise could not be replaced by us for the same money. Bring in your cash—carry home your parcels—and benefit by the big reductions.

Pay Cash — Carry Your Parcels — Save Money

Money Savers For Men

$1.50 Nainsook Union Suits for $1.10

Splendid checked Nainsook Suits of light weight. Well cut garments which will give maximum comfort and wear well. All sizes from 34 to 46. Buy now for this hot weather.

$1.50 Percal Shirts for $1.15

Coat style Shirts, in a fine assortment of the newer designs and colorings. They are all made with the popular soft cuffs, and we have them in all sizes.

Entire Stock of Silk Neckwear

OUR ENTIRE STOCK IN ALL LATEST DESIGNS AND COLORS
ALL 55c NECKTIES ..... SALE PRICE 43c
ALL 75c NECKTIES ..... SALE PRICE 65c
ALL 1.00 NECKTIES ..... SALE PRICE 85c

$1.25 Madras Union Suits for 89c a Suit

Madras has superior wearing powers, and these Suits look as well as they will wear. Sleeveless, knee length, they are mighty comfortable for hot weather.

$2.00 Negligee Shirts—Cash and Carry Price $1.55

Handsome Shirts, in mercerized poplin, madras and French percale. All sizes in the lot, and a particularly attractive lot of styles and colorings.

Silks and Dress Goods

SPECIAL BARGAINS FOR THIS SALE

$2.00 Stripe Taffeta

A thirty-five inch Taffeta, in sport styles and colorings. If you want a sport skirt cheap buy some of this.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE 60c

$3.00 Yo San Sport Pongee

A yard wide Silk in four good sport styles. For an inexpensive skirt of best quality buy this.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE $1.29

Fancy Check Worsteds

Sold regularly for 85c a yard, they are excellent for skirts or suits. The width is 36 inches, and the checks are green and black combinations.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE 49c

$2.50 French Serge

An All-Wool Serge, in colors and black. A serge which sells regularly for $2.50. Width 42 inches.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE $1.95

$2.00 Silk-and-Wool Poplin

Brown, navy, Copenhagen, taupe, green, gray and black are offered in this beautiful fabric. Width 44 inches.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE $1.65

The Boston Store
The Reid & Hughes Co.

"I certainly did look funny peering over those reading glasses"

"Well, if here isn't that old drawing daughter made of me when I was wearing those bothersome reading glasses! What a revelation to see ourselves as others see us!"

"I realize now how comical I appeared ducking my head to squint over my glasses when I used to see objects a few feet away—and what a nuisance to continually put them on and take them off all day long!"

KRYPTOK
GLASSES
THE INVISIBLE EYEGLASSES

You are assured of getting the genuine Kryptoks when you come to us.

EYES EXAMINED LENSES GROUND

C. A. SPEAR

OPTOMETRIST

216 Main Street Up Stairs Franklin Square

Folks who like good eats, like POST TOASTIES says Bobby